9.45 Keynote: Collaborating to deliver outcomes

A look at how local authorities can work with care providers to deliver the triple aim of good outcomes, good value and efficient services.

Tim Golby, Deputy Chief Officer for Adult Commissioning and Health (ADASS) and Ian Hobbs, Senior Manager, Market Management and Quality Assurance – Devon County Council

10.30 The local market: an overview

A close look at the local scene in social care. What does the market look like and how can it improve? What are the issues and pitfalls being faced and encountered in Dorset? Where are the opportunities for growth and what needs to be done to achieve this?

Greg Palfrey, Advisory Partner and Stuart Goodman, Senior Manager, Corporate Finance – Smith and Williamson

11.00 Refreshments and exhibition viewing

11.30 Adapting to the needs of your clients

How can providers work with the changing needs of the frail elderly? Are you equipped and are your staff trained to deal with dementia and mental health issues? Where can you find support and advice? Who should you be connecting with to ensure you're meeting the needs of your clients?

Jill Manthorpe, Professor of Social Work, Director of the Social Care Workforce Research Unit – King's College London

12.00 Panel Discussion

12.30 Workshops

Investigations and Inquests: When things go wrong

A Q&A session focusing on three real case studies around investigations into health and safety and fire regulations as well as inquests. What can be learnt and how can providers ensure they aren't at risk? What should providers do if they are faced with investigations into these areas of business?

Rachel Adamson, Head of Practice, Crime – Slater and Gordon

Consumer law guidance and what it means for you

How will the new guidance from the Competition and Markets Authority affect you? What does it mean for your contract obligations and how can you manage continuing healthcare funding and top-ups alongside the recommendations?

Ellis Jones

Alternative methods for recruitment and retention

An in-depth look at the latest developments in recruitment, exploring how challenges can be overcome, why you're using agencies and how you can increase your retention rates. This workshop will also discuss the potential evolution of recruitment practices over the next decade and how you can improve your return on investment.

Mav Kopczewski, Founder – Urtle
